

Uniquus Consultech Signs Strategic Partnership Agreement with Numero AI

Aims to scale AI-driven solutions for enterprise finance transformation

San Francisco, USA - 11 March 2026: Uniquus Consultech, a tech-enabled global platform that offers consulting solutions in the accounting & reporting, finance operations, governance, risk, sustainability, technology and valuations domains, today announced a strategic collaboration with Numero AI, a technology company that develops proprietary agentic artificial intelligence and software modules for finance transformation use cases.

The collaboration brings together Numero's AI platform and technology capabilities with Uniquus' advisory, delivery, and client-engagement expertise to jointly scale AI-driven solutions for enterprise finance transformation. The joint offering is designed to help CFOs and finance leaders modernize core finance processes, accelerate the close, strengthen controls, and unlock richer, real-time insights for the business.

Sandip Khetan, Co-Founder, Global Head of Accounting & Reporting Consulting, commented, "Our collaboration with Numero represents an important step in advancing AI-led finance transformation for enterprises globally. By combining Numero's agentic AI platform with our advisory and implementation expertise, we aim to help organizations modernize finance operations, automate complex processes, and build more agile and data-driven finance functions."

Karthik Ramamoorthy, Chief Executive Officer of Numero AI, added, "Uniquus brings strong advisory and delivery capabilities across finance transformation programs. Together, we aim to deliver integrated solutions that combine advanced AI technology with deep finance and implementation expertise to help enterprises optimize finance processes and accelerate their transformation journeys."

The collaboration reflects a shared focus on integrating advanced AI technologies with advisory expertise to help organizations build more efficient, technology-enabled, and scalable finance operations. Together, the companies aim to help enterprises modernize finance functions through intelligent automation, scalable cloud-native technology, and data-driven insights—while maintaining a strong focus on audit readiness, regulatory compliance, and risk management.
