

Uniquus Consultech Signs Strategic Collaboration with Surya Financial Technologies

Partnership to deliver integrated risk management and data analytics solutions to financial institutions globally

Mumbai, India – 21 April 2026: Uniquus Consultech, a tech-enabled global consulting platform, today announced a strategic collaboration with Surya Financial Technologies Pvt. Ltd, a leading provider of financial risk management and data analytics solutions. The collaboration is designed to help banks and financial institutions worldwide strengthen risk governance, enhance balance sheet resilience, and make faster, accurate, data-driven decisions through integrated advisory-led technology transformation.

Under the collaboration, the two organizations will jointly pursue large-scale finance and risk transformation initiatives across key global markets, including India, the Middle East, Africa, the United States, and Europe. Together, they aim to deliver end-to-end solutions that combine Surya's proven risk technology and data platforms with Uniquus' deep advisory, program governance, and domain expertise.

Jamil Khatri, Co-Founder and CEO at Uniquus Consultech, said, "As financial institutions continue to navigate evolving regulatory expectations and complex transformation priorities, collaborations that combine deep technology capabilities with strong advisory expertise are becoming increasingly important. Our collaboration with Surya FinTech enhances our ability to support clients in strengthening governance frameworks, managing financial risks more effectively, and implementing technology-enabled change with confidence."

Under the arrangement, Surya FinTech will lead solution design, software configuration, and implementation, while Uniquus will drive advisory services, target operating model design, and program governance, enabling seamless execution from strategy through deployment.

D.N. Prahlad, Founder and Chairman at Surya FinTech, a product division of Surya Software Systems that specializes in providing Financial Control and Risk Management solutions for Banking and Financial Institutions, added, "Uniquus brings exceptional consulting depth and proven program execution capabilities to financial risk management. Through this strategic collaboration, we will deliver fully integrated solutions that combine advanced financial technology platforms with deep domain expertise, empowering institutions to build more resilient, efficient, and future-ready finance and risk functions."

The collaboration reflects a shared commitment to addressing evolving client needs through complementary strengths. By integrating technology-led solution delivery with advisory, program management, and risk expertise, the two firms aim to help financial institutions execute scalable transformation programs, strengthen compliance, improve data-driven decision-making, and maximize value from technology investments.
